ZOYA'S ENGLISH — STUDY MODULE 02

50 Useful English Sentence Patterns

Rebuilt from the original source — interactive web edition plus print-ready A4.

Source: 002 - 50 Useful English Sentence Patterns.pdf 1705 words ~10 min read

50 English Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 1 — Everyday Basics

1.| I want to + V1

Used to express a desire or wish.

2.| Ineed to + V1

Used to express a necessity.

I have to + V1

Used to express an obligation (often due to a rule or situation).

4.| I'm going to + V1

Used to talk about a plan or intention.

5.| I'm about to + V1

Used to say that something is going to happen very soon.

Example:

- e | want to learn English.
- e | want to travel someday.

Example:

- e | need to study.
- e | need to buy a new phone.

Example:

- e | have to wake up early.
- e I have to submit the assignment tomorrow.

Example:

- e |'m going to start a new routine.
- e I'm going to visit my hometown next week.

Example:

- e I'm about to leave.
- e I'm about to start my class.

1/10

50 English Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 2 — Preferences & Choices

6. | "d rather + V1

Used to express a preference for one thing over another.

I prefer + noun/V-ing + to + noun/V-ing

Used to say that you like one thing more than another.

Example:

- e I'd rather stay home today.
- e I'd rather read a book than watch TV.

Example:

- e | prefer tea to coffee.
- e | prefer studying in the morning to studying at night.

8. | I'd like to + V1

Used to express a polite wish or request.

9. | I feel like + V-ing

Used to express a desire to do something.

10.| I don't feel like + V-ing]

Used to express a lack of desire to do something.

Example:

- e Id like to join the course.
- e Id like to thank you for your help.

Example:

- e | feel like going for a walk.
- e | feel like eating something sweet.

Example:

- e | don't feel like studying today.
- e | don't feel like going out.

|

2/10

50 English Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 3 — Ability & Possibility

Ican + V1

Example:

Used to express ability or possibility.

I can't + V1

Used to express inability or lack of possibility.

I'm able to + V1

Used to express ability (slightly more formal than 'can').

It may/might + V1

|

Used to express a possibility (that is not certain).

There's a chance that +| clause

Used to express a possibility that something may happen.

—

|

- ¢ [can swim.
- e I can speak English.

Example:

- e I can't drive.
- e [can't understand this.

Example:

- e |'m able to solve the problem.
- e She's able to attend the meeting tomorrow.

Example:

- ¢ It may rain today.
- e He might come later.

Example:

- e There's a chance that it will snow tomorrow.
- e There's a chance that she knows the answer.

.———

3/10

50 English Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 4 — Advice & Necessity

16. | You should + V1

Used to give advice or a recommendation.

17.| You shouldn't + V1

Used to give a negative suggestion or advice.

18.| You'd better + V1

Used to give strong advice or a warning.

19. | You don't have to + V1

Used to say that something is not necessary.

20. You're supposed to + V1

Used to say that something is expected or required (often by a rule).

Example:

- e You should drink more water.

- e You should take a break.

Example:

- e You shouldn't waste time.
- e You shouldn't be so hard on yourself.

Example:

- e You'd better leave now.
- e You'd better study for the exam.

Example:

- e You don't have to come early.
- e You don't have to bring anything.

Example:

- e You're supposed to wear a uniform.
- e You're supposed to be here by 9 a.m.

4/10

50 English Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 5 — Time & Habits

I used to + V1

Used to talk about habits or situations in the past that are no longer true.

I'm used to + V-ing

Used to say that something is familiar and no longer strange or difficult.

I'm getting used to + V-ing

Used to say that you are becoming familiar with something.

It takes + time + to+ V1

Used to say how much time is needed to do something.

It's time to + V1

Used to say that something should be done now.

Example:

- e | used to live in Delhi.
- e | used to play the piano.

Example:

- e |'m used to waking up early.
- e She's used to living alone.

Example:

- e [I'm getting used to this routine.
- e She's getting used to the new environment.

Example:

- e It takes time to build a habit.
- e It takes a lot of courage to change.

Example:

- e It's time to study.
- e It's time to move on.

5/10

50 English Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 6 — Opinions & Thoughts

I think + clause

Used to express your opinion or belief.

I don't think + clause

Used to express a negative opinion or belief.

I believe + clause

Used to express a strong opinion or confidence.

In my opinion, + clause

Used to give your personal view.

As far as I know, + clause

Used to say something based on the information you have.

Example:

- e | think it's a good idea.
- e | think she is honest.

Example:

- e | don't think it will rain.
- e | don't think he is coming.

Example:

- e | believe in hard work.
- ç | believe she can do it.

Example:

- e In my opinion, this book is worth reading.
- e In my opinion, you should try it.

Example:

- e As far as I know, he lives in Mumbai.
- e As far as I know, the meeting is tomorrow.

6/10

50 English Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 7 — Cause & Result

31.| That's why + clause

Used to show the result or reason for something.

Because of + noun/V-ing

|

Used to show the reason for something (followed by a noun or V-ing).

33. Due to + noun

Used to show the reason for something (more formal than 'because of').

34, | So + adjective + that + clause

|

Used to show a strong result.

35. | Such + noun + that + clause

|

Used to show a strong result (with a noun).

——

Example:

- e I was tired. That's why I went to bed early.
- e She didn't study. That's why she failed the exam.

Example:

- e We couldn't go because of the rain.
- e He was late because of heavy traffic.

Example:

- e The event was cancelled due to bad weather.
- e Due toa lack of time, | couldn't finish it.

Example:

- e It was so cold that I couldn't sleep.
- e She is so kind that everyone likes her.

Example:

- e It was such a beautiful day that we went for a walk.
- e She is such a hardworking student that everyone admires her.

|.

———

7/10

50 English Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 8 — Conditions

If were you, I would + V1}

Used to give advice or suggest a course of action (imaginary situation).

37. If + present, will + V1

Used to talk about real and possible situations in the future.

38. Unless + clause

Used to say that something will not happen if a certain condition is not met.

39. As long as + clause

Used to say that something will happen or is okay if a certain condition is met.

Even if + clause

Used to say that something will still happen, no matter what.

——

—

Example:

- e If were you, I would apologize.
- e If] were you, I would take the job.

Example:

- e [fit rains tomorrow, | will stay home.
- e If you study hard, you will succeed.

Example:

- e Unless you hurry, you will miss the bus.
- e Unless it stops raining, we can't go.

Example:

- e You can use my notes as long as you return them.
- e As long as you are happy, I'm happy.

Example:

- e | will support you even if you fail.
- e Even if it's difficult, | won't give up.

|

————

8/10

50 English Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 9 — Conversation Patterns

Would you mind + V-ing?

|

Used to make a polite request.

42. | Do you mind if + clause?

|

Used to ask for permission in a polite way.

43, | Could you please + V1?

|

Used to make a polite and formal request.

44,| Let me + V1.

Used to offer help or ask for permission to do something.

Why don't we + V1?

|

Used to make a suggestion in a friendly way.

—

Example:

- e Would you mind opening the window?
- e Would you mind helping me with this?

Example:

- Do you mind if I sit here?
- e Do you mind if I ask a question?

Example:

- e Could you please pass the salt?
- e Could you please send me the notes?

Example:

- e Let me help you.
- e Let me check and get back to you.

Example:

- e Why don't we go for a walk?
- e Why don't we watch a movie tonight?

|.

————

9/10

50 English Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 10 — Useful Everyday Patterns

46. It depends on + noun

Used to say that the answer is not certain and relies on something.

47. As soon as + clause

Used to say that one action happens immediately after another.

In order to + V1

Used to show the purpose or reason for doing something.

49.| So that + clause

Used to show the purpose or intention.

50,| It's better to + V1 better to + V1

Used to give advice or a suggestion. to give advice or a stion.

—

Example:

- e It depends on the situation.
- e It depends on your schedule.

Example:

- e ['ll call you as soon as I reach home.
- e As soon as the class ends, Pll come.

Example:

- e | study hard in order to achieve my goals.
- e She left early in order to catch the bus.

Example:

- e [turned down the music so that you could sleep.
- e She spoke slowly so that everyone could understand.

Example:

- e It's better to be honest.
- e It's better to start early than to be late.

|

———

10/10