ZOYA'S ENGLISH — STUDY MODULE

50 Useful English Sentence Patterns

Rebuilt from the original source — interactive web edition plus print-ready A4.

Source: 50 Useful English Sentence Patterns.pdf 1723 words ~10 min read

50 English

Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 1 — Everyday Basics

I want to + V1

Used to express a desire or wish.

I need to + V1

Used to express a necessity.

I have to + V1

Used to express an obligation (often due to a rule or situation).

I’m going to + V1

Used to talk about a plan or intention.

I’m about to + V1 Used to say that something is going to happen very soon.

Small Patterns. Big Progress.

Example: e | want to learn English. e | want to travel someday.

Example: e | need to study. e | need to buy a new phone.

Example: e | have to wake up early.

e I have to submit the assignment tomorrow.

Example:

e I’m going to start a new routine.

e I’m going to visit my hometown next week.

Example:

e I’m about to leave. e I’m about to start my class.

50 English

Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 2 — Preferences & Choices

I’d rather + V1

Used to express a preference for one thing over another.

I prefer + noun/V-ing + to + noun/V-ing

Used to say that you like one thing more than another.

Id like to + V1

Used to express a polite wish or request.

I feel like + V-ing

Used to express a desire to do something.

I don’t feel like + V-ing

Used to express a lack of desire to do something.

Example: e I’d rather stay home today.

e |’d rather read a book than watch TV.

Example:

e | prefer tea to coffee.

e | prefer studying in the morning to studying at night.

Example: e I'd like to join the course.

e I'd like to thank you for your help.

Example: e | feel like going for a walk.

e | feel like eating something sweet.

Example: e | don’t feel like studying today. e | don’t feel like going out.

——$$— Better Choices. A Better You. —————_

50 English

Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 3 — Ability & Possibility

Ican+ V1 Example:

Used to express ability ¢ [can swim. or possibility. e I can speak English.

I can’t + V1 Example:

Used to express inability e I can’t drive.

or lack of possibility. e [can’t understand this.

I’m able to + V1 Example:

Used to express ability e I’m able to solve the problem. (slightly more formal than e She’s able to attend the meeting ‘can’). tomorrow.

.4. | It may/might + V1 | Example:

Used to express a possibility e It may rain today. (that is not certain). e He might come later.

There’s a chance that +} Example:

clause e There’s a chance that it will snow tomorrow.

e There’s a chance that she knows the answer.

Used to express a possibility that something may happen.

— More Practice. More Possibilities. ._———

50 English

Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 4 — Advice & Necessity

You should + V1

Used to give advice or a recommendation.

Example: e You should drink more water. e You should take a break.

You shouldn’t + V1

Used to give a negative suggestion or advice.

You’d better + V1

Used to give strong advice or a warning.

You don’t have to + V1

Used to say that something is not necessary.

You're supposed to + V1

Used to say that something is expected or required (often by a rule).

Good Advice Leads to a Better You.

Example:

e You shouldn’t waste time. e You shouldn’t be so hard on yourself.

Example: e You'd better leave now. e You'd better study for the exam.

Example: e You don’t have to come early. e You don’t have to bring anything.

Example: e You’re supposed to wear a uniform.

e You're supposed to be here by 9 a.m.

50 English

Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 5 — Time & Habits

I used to + V1

Used to talk about habits or situations in the past that are no longer true.

I’m used to + V-ing

Used to say that something is familiar and no longer strange or difficult.

I’m getting used to + V-ing

Used to say that you are becoming familiar with something.

It takes + time + to+ V1

Used to say how much time is needed to do something.

It’s time to + V1

Used to say that something should be done now.

Time Well Used Brings a Better You.

Example: e | used to live in Delhi. e | used to play the piano.

Example: e I’m used to waking up early. e She’s used to living alone.

Example: e I’m getting used to this routine. e She’s getting used to the new environment.

Example: e It takes time to build a habit.

e It takes a lot of courage to change.

Example: e It’s time to study. e It’s time to move on.

50 English

Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 6 — Opinions & Thoughts

I think + clause

Used to express your opinion or belief.

I don’t think + clause

Used to express a negative opinion or belief.

I believe + clause

Used to express a strong opinion or confidence.

In my opinion, + clause

Used to give your personal view.

As far as I know, + clause

Used to say something based on the information you have.

Clear Thoughts. Better Conversations.

Example: e | think it’s a good idea. e | think she is honest.

Example: e | don’t think it will rain. e | don’t think he is coming.

Example: e | believe in hard work. e | believe she can do it.

Example:

e In my opinion, this book is worth reading. In my opinion, you should try it.

Example: e As far as I know, he lives in Mumbai.

As far as I know, the meeting is tomorrow.

50 English

Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 7 — Cause & Result

That’s why + clause | Pxample:

e I was tired. That’s why I went to bed early.

e She didn’t study. That’s why she failed the exam.

Used to show the result or reason for something.

Because of + noun/V-ing | Example: Used to show the reason ¢ We couldn’t go because of for something (followed by the rain. a noun or V-ing). e He was late because of heavy traffic.

Due to + noun Example:

e The event was cancelled due to bad weather.

e Due toa lack of time, I couldn’t finish it.

Used to show the reason for something (more formal than ‘because of’).

So + adjective + that + clause | Fxample:

e It was so cold that I couldn’t sleep.

e She is so kind that everyone likes her.

Used to show a strong result.

Such + noun + that + clause | Example:

e It was such a beautiful day that we went for a walk.

e She is such a hardworking student that everyone admires her.

Used to show a strong result (with a noun).

— Understand the Reasons. See the Bigger Picture. |. ———

50 English

Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 8 — Conditions

If | were you, I would + V1} Example:

Used to give advice or suggest a course of action (imaginary situation).

If + present, will + V1

Used to talk about real and possible situations in the future.

Unless + clause

Used to say that something will not happen if a certain condition is not met.

As long as + clause

Used to say that something will happen or is okay if a certain condition is met.

Even if + clause

Used to say that something will still happen, no matter what.

Conditions Shape Choices.

e If were you, | would apologize.

e If] were you, | would take the job.

Example:

e If it rains tomorrow, | will stay home. If you study hard, you will succeed.

Example:

e Unless you hurry, you will miss the bus. Unless it stops raining, we can’t go.

Example:

e You can use my notes as long as you return them.

e As long as you are happy, I’m happy.

Example:

e | will support you even if you fail.

e Even if it’s difficult, | won’t give up.

50 English

Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 9 — Conversation Patterns

Would you mind + V-ing? | Example:

e Would you mind opening the window?

e Would you mind helping me with this?

Used to make a polite request.

Do you mind if + clause? | Example: Used to ask for permission * Do you mind if I sit here? in a polite way. e Do you mind if I ask a question?

43, | Could you please + V1? | Example: Used to make a polite and ° Could you please pass

1 9 formal request. the salt? e Could you please send me the notes?

Let me + V1. Example:

Used to offer help or ask ¢ Let me help you. for permission to do e Let me check and get something. back to you.

Why don’t we + V1? | Example:

e Why don’t we go for a walk? in a friendly way. e Why don’t we watch a movie tonight?

Used to make a suggestion

— Better Conversations Build Better Connections. |. _————

50 English

Sentence Patterns

You Should Know

Part 10 — Useful Everyday Patterns

It depends on + noun Used to say that the answer is not certain and relies on something.

As soon as + clause

Used to say that one action happens immediately after another.

In order to + V1

Used to show the purpose or reason for doing something.

So that + clause

Used to show the purpose or intention.

It’s better to + V1

Used to give advice or a suggestion.

Small Patterns. Big Progress.

Example: e It depends on the situation.

e |t depends on your schedule.

Example: e [’ll call you as soon as I reach home.

e As soon as the class ends, Pll come.

Example:

e | study hard in order to achieve my goals.

e She left early in order to catch the bus.

Example:

e | turned down the music so that you could sleep.

e She spoke slowly so that everyone could understand.

Example:

e It’s better to be honest.

e It’s better to start early than to be late.